

Programme GBAD seminar 25.11.21
1000 - 1010	Welcome from Norwegian Veterinary Institute	Dir Gen, Norw. Veterinary Institute Toril Moseng
1010 - 1020	Introduction and presentations	Edgar Brun
1020 - 1045	Improving sustainability in food production and societal outcome - the concept of Global Burden of Animal Diseases (GBAD)	Jonathan Rushton/Benjamin Huntington (U of Liverpool)
1045 - 1100	OIE Collaborating Center for the Economics on Animal Health – a tool to improve the awareness of economics in international animal disease intervention	Jonathan Rushton/Benjamin Huntington
1100- 1115	Data driven decision support to control animal diseases – The “Decide” project.	Wilma Steeneveld (U of Utrecht)/Britt Bang Jensen
	QnA
1130 - 1230	Lunch
1230 - 1240	GBAD – in terrestrial animal productions	Wilma Steeneveld
1240 -1255	GBAD – a case study in Norwegian salmon production	Paul Steinar Valle
1255- 1310	Animal Health Economics in a biological perspective	Arnfinn Aunsmo*/Pauorw Veterinary Institute
	QnA
	Coffee/tea
1340 – 1355	GBADs project with SERNAPESCA, Chile	Hernan Rojas
1355 - 1410	GBAD and the new Norwegian Strategy on Aquaculture	Edgar Brun
1410 - 1430	Health economics and GBAD in low-income country aquaculture	Audun Lem
1430 - 1520	Round Table Discussion
1520 - 1530	Summing up

* COO Laxar, Iceland

 Director, CERES BCA Chile; Digital presentation

 D-1 and head of the Market and Value chain ‘branch’; Food Safety, nutrition and health (NFIMF) , one of the 3 Teams under him; Digital presentation